The only objection to this place is its distance from nearest railroad point, being 23 miles northeast of Amory, Miss., of which 17 miles are paved and 6 miles country road. This place had a dark, sandy loam soil underlaid with clay; is very productive, two-thirds of the place is level creek bottom and one-third in thill, though only about 30 acres in entire place forever unfit for cultivation. There are nine mineral springs; several spring branches: three wells and a large creek; well ditched and drained. While this is a creek bottom farm, it is splendidly healthful; it is three miles from Tremont, where there is a school and church and store on the great Bankhead highway; it is 14 miles from postoffice of Smithville, Miss., from which place there is a daily rural mail. It is 32 miles east of Tupelo and 12 miles east of county seat. Fulton. There is an old 16-room summer hotel: a fairly good 4-room residence; one 4-room tenant houses 2 barns and an old storehouse; all the improvements are in fair condition. DO YOU WANT TO SELL?
